Abstract

A fit husband loves his wife. In contrast an unfit husband beats his wife. The more unfit the more is the beating. Thus, from the severity of beating one may guess thereby gauge the degree of unfitness of the callous husband who tries in vain to hush up his deficiency. A woman cannot know, in advance, whether her husband will be fit or unfit or in between fit and unfit. None knows what is in her lot. Thus, marriage is a pure gambling. The paradox is that the women know it very well yet they marry. The cause and because i.e., the reasons of it are best known to the female class only. They say there are two types of people. The first category likes to torture. The second category likes to be tortured. The woman belongs to the second category. This is the open secret regarding unfitness of the patriarchal society.

1. Introduction

Creative writing is based more on manifestation rather than on expression. It does not inform, rather it reveals. So, it bears no reference. The best creative writing is critical, and the best critical writing is creative. This article is an outcome of thinking about creative writing meant for a general readership. As such, I have adopted a free style methodology so that everyone can enjoy the pleasure of reading. As you might know, Francis Bacon (1561-1626), the immortal essayist, wrote many essays namely 'Of Love', 'Of Friendship', 'Of Ambition', 'Of Studies', and so on. The multiple-minded genius correctly pointed out that all the words of the dictionary can be used as themes for essays. But little has been done since his death to continue or finish his monumental task. Bacon's unique individual style of presentation ignited my imagination and encouraged me to write creative essays as a method of relieving a wide range of emotions through catharsis.

2. Article

Unfit is not of the necessary quality or standard to meet a particular purpose. For example: The land is unfit for food crops.

It is not in good physical condition, typically as a result of failure to take regular exercise. For example: The increase in the number of unfit and overweight children is alarming.

It is to make something or someone unsuitable. It is to make disqualify. For example: They say that we are trying to give poor children tastes which will only unfit them for a life of hardship and toil.

If a person is physically fit, mentally sound and economically strong he considers himself as super hero and second to none. He has no idea about unfit. He does not think about unfit. As such he cannot think what unfit really is. Thus, he is quite unfit to think about unfit. If any of the three variables is not up to the mark then the person becomes unfit automatically.

If the sun, the moon and the earth come in a single line then eclipse is occurred. Since in every full moon or dark moon they do not come in the single line there occurs no eclipse.

Similarly, if all the factors are in desired ratio a person becomes fit. To keep fitness in OK condition sharp vigilance is a must. This is really a difficult task. It is an art. All are not artist. All cannot be artist. Since all persons either cannot or do not take care properly and timely all cannot enjoy the benefit of fitness, rather most of the persons do suffer from unfitness.

If a man takes care only then he becomes fit. If he does not take care he becomes unfit. Always taking care or always vigilance is not always possible. Only a serious and ambitious person does it. Common person seldom takes care. This answers why we see few successful persons around us. Thus, unfit is natural, fitness is artificial.

Unfit is normal. It is like a spring that spontaneously comes out of a hill. One has to do nothing to be unfit. It is quite an automatic outcome. It is a tension free outcome.

In contrast fit is quite artificial. It is temporary in nature. One has to be very careful and vigilant to remain fit and hold that fitness with utmost sincerity. Any lacunae will convert that fit into an unfit one. If luck betrays then in the twinkle of an eye a fit person may meet an accident and becomes unfit.

A fit person knows not the sufferings of being unfit. Only an unfit person knows the pain caused by unfit. This is like, "Only the wearer knows where the shoe pinches".

Immature person is unfit. For any purpose maturity is a must. A matured person can do the assigned job of his own. He needs no guide. Guide means additional cost. Here the product cost is reduced.

An immature fruit is not tasty. Maturity renders the fruit more palatable. The seed of such a fruit gives birth to another tree from which fruits are available which an immature fruit cannot. Thus, immature means unfit.

In case of married life maturity of both the partners are very important. Family life faces so many known and unknown problems. A matured person can tackle those hurdles of life. An immature person is quite unfit in the battle field of life.

A fool is unfit. As such it is judicious to go to the hell with the wise than to go to the heaven with the fools. Fools are always unfit everywhere in every age. They are unfit for their callousness. As such everybody avoids a fool.

If the child is a fool by birth the parents become much worried for its future. Every parent takes extra care for such unfit children. The issue may either be physically handicapped or mentally retarded or both simultaneously. If the issue is a girl the situation becomes much critical after the demise of the parents. Such a girl may be sexually used and abused. There is none to look after such an unfit child properly. Thus, unguarded childhood coupled with unshaded infant render the life of a child quite painful.

Expert is fit. They are skilled persons. They earn much. An unskilled labourer earns less wage. They are unfit for difficult job. The minimum wage should be decent so that they can get two-time meals at least. But it seldom happens. The unfit persons always are deprived from their legitimate claim. Minimum wage is the brain child of the bourgeois. The communist agitates against this deprivation of the proletariat.

In reality the proletariat dies unpaid. They die unfed. They die unwept. They die unsung. They die unknown as well like nameless thousands who built the pyramids.

An uncultured person is unfit in the elite society. The men and manners are quite different in such an enlightened environment. The inferior person is unfit for his lacking in etiquette. A rough person is unfit for an important assignment. He is unfit for his behaviour. He likes to disobey the rules. He enjoys sadistic pleasure. Behaviour and voice are very important. Courtesy costs nothing. But its return is immense. A rough person knows it not. As such he gets no praise. He remains unwelcomed everywhere from cradle to coffin.

A tough person may or may not be unfit. He is fit where discipline is severely maintained. He is a successful captain. Military job is suitable for him. Then he is the right man in the right place. If such a person is posted at any charitable organisation, then he is right man in the wrong place. Kindness is the essence of such peace home.

Slow but steady policy is unfit in emergency or war like crisis period. Here instant action is very vital. Here quick coupled with steadiness is the key to success. A timid or hesitant person is always unfit in war and love.

In charitable society ambitious person is unfit. Here devotion is the main criterion. No return or no expectation i.e., self-less service is the essence of such dedicated organisation.

Less qualified person is unfit for higher level job. Similarly, highly qualified candidate is considered as unsuitable for any tedious job. Then the employee suffers from no or lack of job satisfaction. He becomes indifferent. He becomes mechanical. He moves like a robot that has motion having no emotion at all. In fact, job satisfaction is a difficult thing. Only an artist gets job satisfaction from his creative works. He enjoys classical success. Such a creative genius is valued less in commercial world.

A creator lacks in practical sense. He lives far from the madding crowd. He does not know the profit and loss account of life. As a consequence, he dies unpaid. He dies unfed. He dies wept. He dies unsung. He dies unknown as well like nameless thousands who built the pyramids.

Through nepotism unfit persons get appointment. Then the person cannot work. He becomes a laughing stock. He may not lose the job but he has to carry out the orders of his boss, colleagues and even subordinate employees. In this way unfit person faces demotion.

A person is sexually unfit for conjugal life. Such a person may or may not know it. Now such a person knowingly or unknowingly the physical drawback may marry. Then the couple discovers that either of them or both are unfit for sexual life. This situation has two ultimate outcomes. Either they may consider it as live together without any expectation of baby or they may leave each other.

In such a situation suppression of physical inability causes social trouble. If the bride suppresses it the situation becomes unbearable more than the groom and she have to face the social dogma life-long. In patriarchal society the women are harassed and physically harkled severely by the husband and the members of her in laws house.

Unfit is a relative concept. What is unfit to someone may be greater fit to another one. In case of love affair unfit is quite confusing. To a glamorous heroine an ugly guy is quite unfit. But the paradox is that a heroine may love an ugly guy. Similarly, a hero may love an ugly girl or a rich person may marry a poor girl. It is totally uncommon. They do it to draw the attention that causes tension. It seems it is merely temporary whims of the elite class and the inferior partner gets temporary post likely to be permanent.

In reality the permanency in any post in every sphere of life always depends on the kind consideration of the big boss. Sometimes the boss allows. Sometimes the boss allows not. He allows, if he likes. He allows not, if he likes not. Thus, his mood and motive are gloriously so uncertain. In the world of uncertainty only the certain thing is that the boss is always so kind that he accepts only cash always.

Most of the husbands become unfit to their beloved wives very soon. They cannot fulfil the ever-increasing demands of their wives. A honey-moon couple can't believe that her hero will be unfit in course of time. Then the husband loses attraction with the passage of time. He loses weight of the body. He becomes ugly due to less care. Thus, the once hero becomes now zero.

In classical world commercial person is unfit. Similarly, in commercial place classical person is unfit. A saint is fit to run a prayer hall but can never run a hotel. He is totally unfit for the post of hotel manager.

A fit person becomes successful everywhere. In contrast, an unfit person fails everywhere successfully. For this successful failure the gap between them increases doubly with the passage of time. As such a fit person suffers from superiority complex. An unfit person suffers from inferiority complex. Complex of any kind is not good at all. It is a hindrance for full blooming of personality. Superiority offers pride. They say pride goes before a fall. Similarly, inferiority restricts movement. It freezes advancement. Thus, both superiority and inferiority complex render one unfit.

3. Conclusion

A fit husband loves his wife. In contrast an unfit husband beats his wife. The more unfit the more is the beating. Thus, from the severity of beating one may guess thereby gauge the degree of unfitness of the callous husband who tries in vain to hush up his deficiency.
